

The American flag now flies over the Hotel de Ville in Paris. It was presented by the city of Philadelphia to the people of the French capital on Lafayette Day.

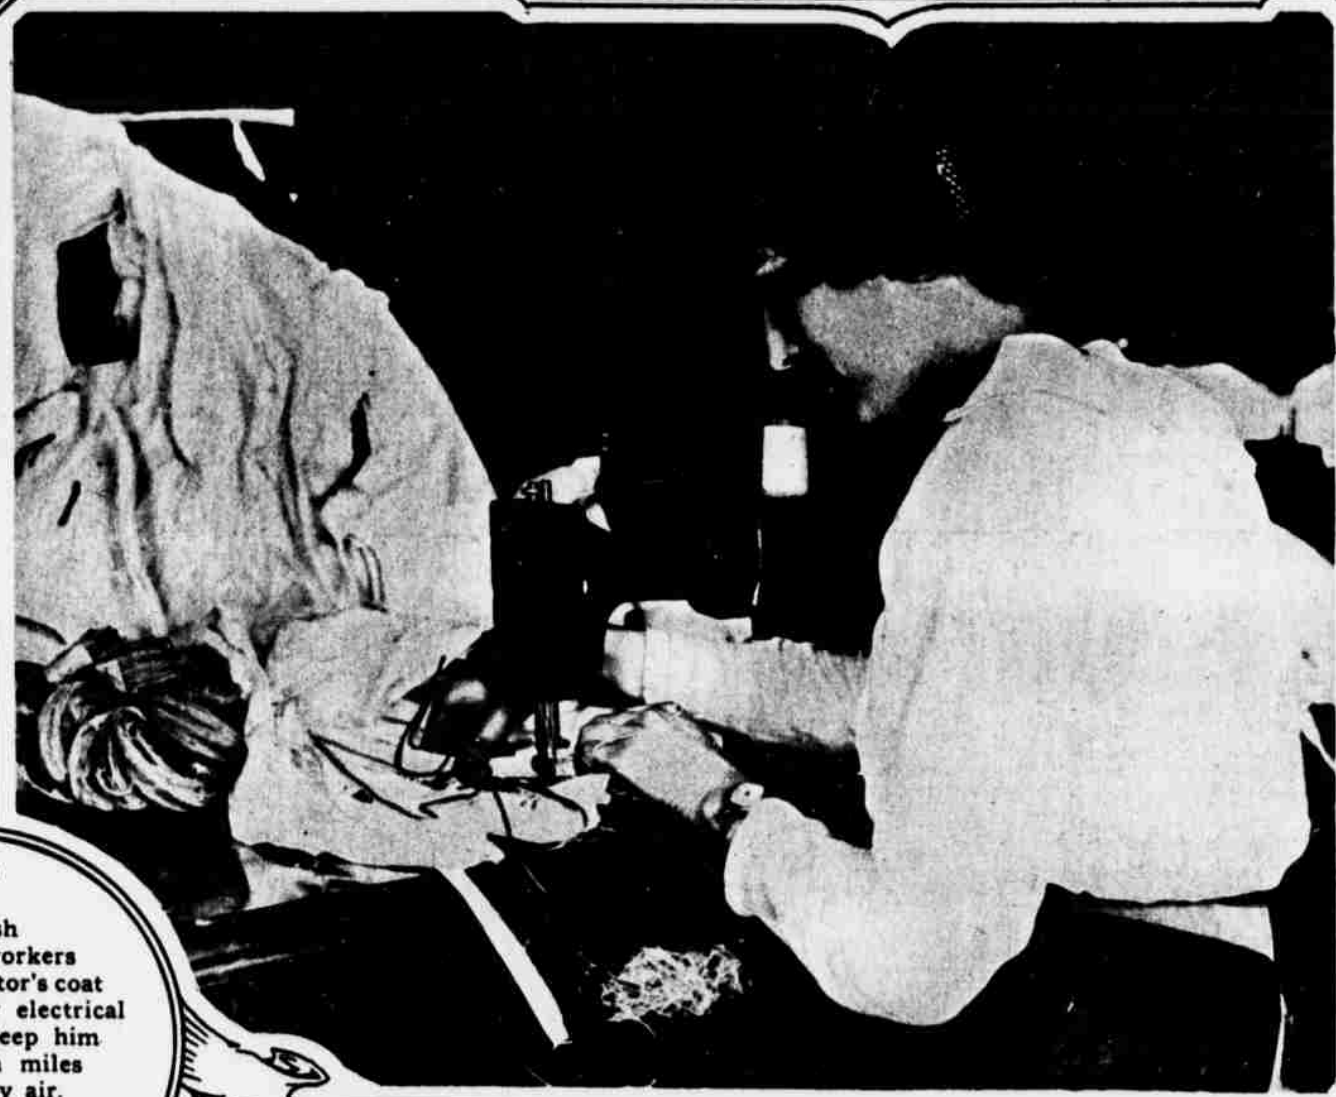

Copyright, International Film Service.

The typical attitude of thousands of Huns to-day. The raising of the hands to accompany the exclamation "Kamerad!" is rapidly becoming what might be called the German national gesture. © International Film.

English munition workers "wiring" aviator's coat and gloves for electrical heating to keep him warm when miles high in icy air. British official photos from Underwood & Underwood.

Above is Mrs. John W. Davis, wife of the Solicitor-General of the United States, who has been made Ambassador to Great Britain. She will assume an important place in the social and political life at London. At the right is Miss Julia Davis, who is expected to accompany her parents abroad.

Photos by Central News Service.

Members of the famous "American Flying Circus" which distinguished itself at St. Mihiel. Bottom row, left to right—Chambers, Meissner of Brooklyn, Capt. Ken Marr, Cooper and Taylor. Top row, left to right—Eastman, Dahe, Smyth and Eddie Rickenbacker. Smyth has been reported killed since this picture was taken.